Negotiators Confer For 53 Minutes

U. N. Advance Headquarters, Korea, Wednesday, AP—Allied and Red cease-fire negotiators conferred for 53 minutes today at Kaesong, then recessed until afternoon a meeting in which peace or war may be at stake.

The two sides recessed at 11:53 a. m. until 2 p. m.

Both sides agreed to the recess.

They had opened the meeting at 11 a. m. with the Reds due to come in with a reply to the Allied demand that the subject of foreign troop withdrawals be kept off an agenda for armistice talks.

The brief forenoon session was only long enough for each delegation to have read a prepared statement and await its translation.

That would indicate the really important session would be that in the afternoon.

It was regarded as virtually certain the U. N. position was unchanged. The Reds possibly brought a compromise proposal to today's meeting but there was nothing official on it.

This was the ninth and show-down meeting.

The only remaining issue was foreign troops withdrawals. The Reds want it on the agenda for the peace talks. United Nations delegates say it is a political matter and should not be discussed in these military talks.

The Red radio has been hammering on the troop withdrawal demand as one of paramount interest to the Communists—but has not said flatly they were prepared to break up the talks over it.

U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters, Wednesday, AP—Allied planes flying nearly 1,000 sorties Tuesday shot up Red frontline positions, blasted highway traffic and pounded rail yards.

Land-based Far East Air forces pilots claimed they killed or wounded more than 200 Reds in eastern Korea where the only fighting of consequence has occurred this week.

Allied warships kept up their daily bombardment of the east coast north of Parallel 38.

On the ground, Allied troops fought for the fourth successive day Tuesday in efforts to drive Communist troops off high ground near the east coast southwest of the coastal city of Kansong.

NLRB Refers Rail Dispute To President

Washington, AP—The National Mediation board last night announced it was sending to the White House for possible further action the long drawn out dispute between the nation's railroads and unions of firemen, engineers, and conductors.

The board did not explain what it meant by possible "further action" and spokesman for the unions told reporters they were at a loss to know what the board meant.

The move did clearly signify that the board felt it was unable to settle this wage-hours dispute which has gone on for more than a year and now has the government technically operating the railroads.

The Army seized the railroads last August to head off a strike of the conductors and trainmen. The trainmen, fourth of the major operating rail unions, finally came to agreement with railroad management on May 25.

But the three other unions and their 150,000 members were not satisfied with the 18½ cent hourly wage boost to train service workers and 33 cents to yard service workers, nor with the rules changes, to which the trainmen agreed.

Withdrawal Of Troops Must Wait Proper Time

Washington, AP—Secretary of Defense Marshall yesterday outlined four "basic conditions" for a Korean armistice, but said withdrawal of troops must await a satisfactory peace settlement.

Continued presence and readiness of United Nations forces in Korea "constitute the only assurance we have of meeting the threat of renewed aggression if the peace talks should break down," Marshall said in news conference statement.

Red propaganda outlets were still insisting on withdrawal of foreign troops as a condition for final peace as United Nations and Communist negotiators prepared to resume cease-fire talks in Kaesong last night after a three-day recess.

Secretary Marshall officially for the first time laid down these conditions for an armistice agreement regarding prisoners of war.

Marshall said withdrawal of foreign troops from Korea will naturally follow a satisfactory peace settlement.

"When the proper time comes," he asserted, "removal of these forces should pose no problem if the Communists are sincere in wanting to work out with us a real settlement of the Korean conflict."

Marshall said the necessity for caution in the peace talks is still evident, adding:

"The discussions thus far have been only on the adoption of an agenda. The real points to be settled have not yet been discussed. There is no agreement as yet to any of these points."

Marshall declared the present negotiations on the battlefield were "entirely different" from negotiations of a political settlement.

"It is essential that the two matters be kept separate and distinct," he said. "If any acceptable armistice can be obtained, discussion of the political question can follow on the highest governmental level."

Ladner Leads Musmanno In State Court Race; Poling Nominated For Philly Mayor

Philadelphia, AP—The Republican organization in Philadelphia won a smashing victory yesterday in a bitterly-fought primary battle, but the Democratic fight for the State Supreme court seat gathered momentum as the votes trickled in.

A congressional fight in McKeesport, near Pittsburgh, also attracted national interest.

The supreme court contest was the only statewide balloting in Pennsylvania's first mid-summer primary, an election that found most voters either disinterested or two-to-one lead over Judge Michael A. Musmanno, on the basis of early incomplete returns.

Observers estimated that only 25 per cent of the State's 4,771,182 registered voters bothered to vote at all. They nominated thousands for county and city offices.

Justice Grover C. Ladner, Philadelphia, backed by the State Democratic organization for the high tribunal seat, piled up a nearly two-to-one lead over Judge Michael A. Musmanno, on the basis of early incomplete returns.

In Philadelphia, Republicans nominated Dr. Daniel A. Poling for mayor. Dr. Poling, 66-year-old nationally known Baptist minister who once was a Progressive party candidate for governor of Ohio, had organization backing. His independent GOP opponent for mayor, Walter P. Miller, 44, a paper manufacturer, conceded defeat at 11:38 p.m.

At that time, with 665 of 1,417 precincts reported, Poling had 81,506 and Miller 13,543—a six-to-one lead.

Ladner grabbed the lead in the Supreme court fight and kept increasing it, slowly, as the vote total mounted. With 1,203 of the State's 8,412 precincts in Ladner had 50,482, Musmanno 30,665.

Nomination for the Supreme court seat is tantamount to election, since the State's electorate must choose one Republican and one Democrat for two 21-year terms.

The board did not explain what it meant by possible "further action" and spokesman for the unions told reporters they were at a loss to know what the board meant.

The move did clearly signify that the board felt it was unable to settle this wage-hours dispute which has gone on for more than a year and now has the government technically operating the railroads.

The Army seized the railroads last August to head off a strike of the conductors and trainmen. The trainmen, fourth of the major operating rail unions, finally came to agreement with railroad management on May 25.

But the three other unions and their 150,000 members were not satisfied with the 18½ cent hourly wage boost to train service workers and 33 cents to yard service workers, nor with the rules changes, to which the trainmen agreed.

Kresge Third In Six-Way GOP Contest

The six-man race for the Republican nominations for county commissioner with seven out of 34 districts missing early this morning indicated that W. Adolph Rake, East Stroudsburg contractor, and Sheriff Amzi F. Altemose had been nominated.

The race was close between Sheriff Altemose and County Commissioner Harry D. Kresge at that time.

Rake, a newcomer to the political wars and a resident of Middle Smithfield township, was leading the race with 925 votes.

Sheriff Altemose, who served one term by election and is completing the term of the late Sheriff Eugene S. Sefass by appointment, was running second with 862 votes.

Kresge, who was seeking nomination to his third term as commissioner, was running third with 792 votes.

Back of these front-running candidates came Francis L. Brodhead, Stroudsburg highway department employee with 507 votes; Joseph S. Price, retired hotelman with 767 and R. H. Minich of Jackson township with 240 votes.

This was the only contest on the Republican ticket for county office.

Three Named By Democrats

Williamsport, AP—Mrs. Julia E. Heller, of Williamsport, believes that you're never too old to vote.

Mrs. Heller, who reached the age of 100 last April 15, cast her vote yesterday in the Democratic primary.

The oldest voter in Lycoming county, she has voted every year since women were given the vote in 1920.

Mrs. Heller, the former Julia Weiss, was born in Stroudsburg, Pa., but has lived here most of her life.

Jacoby, night ticket agent for the Lackawanna railroad and a resident of Prospect St., defeated Elwood E. LaBar, Normal St., 25 to 30.

Vollers, a printer at Hughes Printing Co., handed a decisive defeat to Andrew Mery, 97 to 14.

Sexton, president of the CLU Social club, unseated Elton P. Hall, an incumbent, 102 to 69.

Altemose took a commanding lead with first returns from Barrett's voting machine district and was never headed. The seven missing districts were expected to add to his majority.

Judge Grover C. Ladner, member of Pennsylvania's Supreme Court by appointment during Gov. James H. Duff's term, was running ahead of Allegheny County Judge Michael Musmanno in Monroe county by a 2 to 1 majority.

Office of prothonotary—Charles Steinmetz, Banger.

Gould, serving his second term, lost to Daniel Warner, Stroudsburg funeral director 145 to 70.

17 Districts Report In GOP Primary

District attorney—Louis B. Nielsen Jr., 1004 and David M. Boyd, 633.

Register and recorder—Fred B. Trumm, 1064 and Earl Ammerman, 618.

Quick Beaten In Bid For Renomination

With seven out of 34 districts unreported, the red-hot race for Democratic county commissioner early this morning indicated that County Commissioner Granville Shiffer, Stroud township, the Democratic county chairman, and George E. Shick, thrice before elected to the office, had cinched their party nomination. Pressing in the race was World War Two Veteran Forrest H. Haney, Stroudsburg.

Dropped by voters after serving three terms was Willard L. Quick, Stroudsburg. On the basis of incomplete returns Mr. Quick, ran fourth with Forrest H. Haney, Stroudsburg veteran third and Russell D. Smith, East Stroudsburg fifth.

Shiffer, seeking his second term, ran as he did on his first term—leading the ticket of nominees with 1,862 votes.

Mr. Shick, who apparently made a comeback to win nomination for a fourth term as county commissioner, rolled in second place with 1,624 votes on the basis of incomplete, unofficial returns.

In third place with 1,010 votes was Forrest H. Haney, and immediately behind him was the incumbent Commissioner Quick with 993 votes. Trailing in fourth place with 993 votes was Russell H. Smith.

Missing at press time were these districts: Pocono, Chestnuthill, Delaware Water Gap, Northern Hamilton, Middle Smithfield, Stroudsburg's Third ward.

Returns from these districts could only possibly affect the race for the nomination between Mr. Shick and Mr. Haney.

Plaster Should Dry Thoroughly

If a new plaster wall has to be decorated immediately, it may be sized and calcined. In general, however, new plaster walls should be given at least two months' time in which to dry out before attempting to decorate. If paint is put in green plaster, it is likely to discolor in spots. If the walls are papered, the paper may peel off in places or become discolored.

Youth Pulls Girl From Swift Current

Dominick Spaldo, 14, Philadelphia, who is vacationing in Stroudsburg with relatives, yesterday pulled a youngster out of McMichael's creek, near Long Rock, an old swimming hole west of the 7th St. bridge.

Young Spaldo was walking with one of his young hosts near the swimming hole when current caught the girl—unidentified and about six years old.

Spaldo plunged into the stream, fully dressed, as the current sent the youngster into danger. He brought the child to shore. There the mother picked up the child and hurried away.

He's Still In Jail

Back in October, 1948, ex-sailor Johnny Hvasta was going to school in Czechoslovakia, working as an interpreter in the U.S. Embassy in his spare time. He was arrested for taking pictures and at a closed trial was sentenced to three years as a spy.

Soon afterwards he was charged with threatening to strike a prison guard and at another secret trial was given 10 more years in prison.

Johnny is now serving his fourth year in jail with no hope of getting out in the immediate future. The last time he saw a representative of the State Department was a year ago last February.

Robert Vogeler, an American business man, was found guilty of spying by the Hungarian Communists and sentenced to 15 years. He was released after a relatively short time in prison after the State Department made a deal with Hungary providing for the honoring of visas and the reopening of Hungarian consulates here.

Johnny is an American citizen, too. The State Department may have its own reasons for going to extremes in the Vogeler case and following only routine operations in behalf of Hvasta. But Hvasta, AP correspondent Oatis and all other Americans railroaded into prison by the Communists are entitled to more than routine effort. It is time we got real tough with the Reds on this score.

Not Insane -- Just Crazy

A Detroit traffic court judge has set some kind of new record for dealing with reckless auto drivers.

The judge had before him an old offender, this time charged with drunken driving and driving without a license. The judge had the offender examined by a sanity commission, which ruled him, "not insane or feeble minded"—just a psychopathic personality of the unstable type, irresponsible, emotionally immature and a menace to society."

That's all. Not insane, just crazy when behind the wheel of an auto.

So the judge ordered the violator locked up in an asylum.

How's your driving these days?

Exit Dirt Roads

Secretary of Highways Ray Smock told a convention of rural letter carriers in Reading recently that the day of the dirt road in Pennsylvania's highway system is just about over, and it is hoped that before the end of the present administration there will be none left.

Not that Pennsylvanians and the motoring visitors from outside the state have driven on many roads other than those of concrete and macadam for many years, but the memory of the dusty or muddy pikes still lingers in the memory of the older motorists.

When Secretary Smock says that there will be fewer than 2000 miles of unimproved state roads with the completion of the mileage under contract, he proves once again that this Commonwealth continues to be a leader among the other states in its highway program.

During the past five years the state has spent $114,500,000 for construction and resurfacing, as all who drive the roads of Pennsylvania can testify. Resurfacing and widening of obsolescent primary roads must continue, else postponement prove disastrous to the transportation economy.

Pennsylvanians have been proud of their highway system for a long time, and Mr. Smock's recent statements mean that they will continue to be proud for a longer time in the future.

Harriman Reports 'Real Progress' In Iranian Oil Discussions

Police Break Up Women's Demonstration

Tehran, Iran, (AP)—American negotiator W. Averell Harriman reported "real progress" last night in efforts toward bringing Iran and Britain together for talks toward settlement of their oil dispute.

Iran's terms for reopening oil parleys were sent to London early in the day along with proposals Harriman offered after ten-day consultation with the government.

In London last night informed sources said a full British Cabinet session would be held Thursday on the new turn in the Iranian oil situation.

While awaiting the British reply, the government under martial law broke up a demonstration put on mainly by women in Parliament square. The Majlis (lower house) was in session.

The women carried placards demanding release of their menfolk who were jailed in the Communist-led protest that greeted Harriman on his arrival here July 15.

Harriman's dealings with Premier Mohammed Mossadegh and others now have brought hope that production may be resumed full-blown at the British-controlled Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. (AIOC) refinery on the Persian gulf. Iran's nationalization law is aimed to remove Britain from oil production in Iran.

Britain's plan for a settlement includes recognition of Iran as owner of the oil properties and plants and the formation of a separate British operating company with Iran represented on the board. The British company would produce, refine and market the oil and turn over all distribution and sales inside Iran to an Iranian company.

Rochez Lets Contract For Storm Sewer

Tobynanna—Rochez Bros., Inc., East Pittsburgh contractor on the site preparation for the 30,000,000 Army Signal Depot here, has awarded a subcontract for the storm sewer work on the site to Glogue Construction Co., Philadelphia.

Capt. John A. Myers, Army Corps of Engineers resident engineer, reported the subcontract letting yesterday.

Myers said the Philadelphia subcontractor has already moved equipment to the project and is receiving deliveries of necessary pipe.

The work calls for the installation of more than 40,000 linear feet of storm sewer, the resident engineer said.

Pipe will range from 15 inches to 72 inches in diameter.

Cost of this phase of the site preparation work is estimated at more than $300,000.

Boy Darts Into Path Of Car In East Stroudsburg; Taken To Hospital For Treatment

Four-year-old Talbert Miller, son of Mrs. Mary Miller, 287 Harris St., East Stroudsburg, was struck by a car on N. Courtland St., in the east borough early last night when he apparently darted across the street against traffic near the Burson St. intersection.

The small lad was knocked to the highway and rolled over when he was struck by the left front section of a 1948 medium model sedan operated by Fred T. Whitman, 20, of 142 Maple Ave., East Stroudsburg.

Whitman later told Officer Donald G. Quick, who investigated for east borough police, that he never saw the boy run into the street, and that he first thought his left front tire was going flat as he felt a slight bump.

Officer Quick said the car had been proceeding northward on N. Courtland St., when the mishap occurred at 6:30 p. m.

When he saw the boy rolling on the street surface, Whitman applied his brakes immediately and brought his car to a stop. The injured lad was moved to the porch of a nearby residence, and another motorist drove him to Monroe County General hospital where he was treated and admitted for observation.

Hospital authorities told police that the boy suffered a lacerated ear, superficial lacerations of the left shoulder, and brush burns over his left eye.

Although the young victim appeared to have no fractures or no serious head injury, staff physicians directed that he be held overnight.

Officer Quick said that no charges were preferred against the operator of the car.

The Dunbar has a first floor that consists of two bedrooms, bath, living room and combination kitchen-dinette. Future expansion is taken care of on the second floor where two additional bedrooms can be finished. There is a full basement and an attached, front drive-in, garage with a flat deck and wood rail.

Wardrobe closets are used in all bedrooms, linen cabinets on both floors and coat closets for each entrance.

The kitchen cabinets are arranged on opposite walls in one end of the kitchen. The range and the refrigerator are on the inside and the sink is placed under the window.

Plans for this house call for frame construction, siding, asphalt shingles, double glazed picture window, covered entrance in front and concrete steps.

Dimensions of the Dunbar are 46 feet by 28 feet. Floor area is 893 square feet. Cubage totals 20,093 cubic feet, not counting garage.

For further information about The Dunbar, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn.

Public Favor For Attached Garage Gains

When automobiles first became widely used, the tendency of the car owner was to locate his garage in the rear of the lot just as the stable was placed.

Many old stables were converted into garages as the family moved out to make room for the stable.

From then until today, however, the garage location has been moving slowly forward, and now the most popular spot is beside the house, often a part of it. Within the past few years the tendency toward attached garages has been

Architects and builders, searching for new ways to bring convenience into the small home, saw no reason why the garage could not be added to the house itself for the sake of both convenience and appearance.

Attached garages, according to Federal Housing Administration officials, add to convenience of use and improve accessibility between the house and the garage. When the garage is near the street, the driveway is short and its cost is reduced.

FHA officials also point out that placing the garage near the house permits better use of the rear yard and makes the small house appear larger because of increase in the building mass.

One way to increase the apparent size of a house is to attach the garage to the house by means of a covered passageway. When left open the passageway also serves as a porch, although many owners prefer to have it treated simply as a part of the house.

Rice still is the medium of exchange in many parts of the Orient, where debts, taxes and even wages are paid with it.

Furniture Depends On Room Size

One of the most important single considerations in the furnishing of a room—any room—is a definite knowledge of its dimensions. Wall spaces and principal pieces of furniture already in a room should also be measured.

Since furniture should fit the space it is to fill as accurately as clothing should fit the body of the person who is to wear it, it is advisable to purchase furniture with considerable forethought about the likelihood of disappointment if the actual space relationships of the room are ignored.

Accordingly, the person who wishes to furnish the room intelligently should measure the room and the existing furnishings accurately.

Things To Avoid In Your Home

Avoid—
Too many pictures of uncertain value.
Too many pieces of overstuffed furniture.
Too many heavy draperies in small rooms.

Too many things of no value on the mantel.

Too little evidence of the individual living in the home and expression of their own taste.

The National Geographic Society says nearly a third of Australia's people depend on sheep and wool for a living.

Simplicity Of Design Cuts Costs

Prospective home builders seeking means of keeping construction costs at a minimum can do so by employing simplicity of design, using economical materials and omitting certain nonessentials.

Architects point out that all this usually can be done without sacrifice of basic soundness or attractiveness. Simplified design permits numerous savings in construction costs. Examples of such economies are found in simple, straight-line roofs, and division of a house into a few multi-purpose rooms instead of a greater number of small rooms. Another point of saving is designing a dwelling with an eye toward more uniformity in sizes of windows, doors and other millwork.

Further economies can be effected by using materials in which there is a minimum of waste and which can be applied without undue difficulties. One should be careful, however, to select materials which are durable and efficient.

For such structural parts as the flooring, for example, oak and other hardwoods can be installed rapidly with little cutting, fitting or waste. Attractive and unusually serviceable, they ordinarily last the life of a house.

Check Putty
In preparing for an outside paint job, always make sure the putty around windows is secure. If not have it removed. Before new putty is applied, have the sash edge painted with a good prime coat.

Mabel I. Sandt, of Stroudsburg, transferred title to a small parcel in Hamilton township to John W. and Ruth E. Dobson, of Tamaqua, N. J., while Mrs. Sandt took title to a 13-acre tract in Hamilton from Harold and Dorothy Sandt, also of Stroudsburg.

Physicians' Net Income Averaged $11,000 In 1949

Washington (AP) — Physicians in civilian practice in the United States had an average net income of $11,058 before taxes in 1949.

And physicians in medium size communities fared better financially than their colleagues in the big cities.

These were among the findings reported yesterday from a nationwide survey conducted jointly by the Department of Commerce and the American Medical Association.

Dr. Frank G. Dickinson, director of the AMA's Medical Economic Research bureau, said in a statement in Chicago that the survey was "the best and broadest mail questionnaire income survey ever taken of any profession."

Questionnaires were sent to 125,000 physicians across the nation, with 55,000 replies received.

The survey showed that neurological surgeons led the field for highest earnings with an average net income of $28,628.

Rites Conducted For Mrs. Litts

Funeral services for Mrs. Lida Litts, of 74 Penn St., East Stroudsburg, were held at the late residence yesterday with Rev. William F. Wunder, pastor of Grace Lutheran church of East Stroudsburg, officiating.

Glenn A. Reish, Edgar W. Van-Why, Earl Weiss, Earl Sandt, Charles S. Hauston Sr., and Charles S. Hauston Jr. were the pallbearers.

Interment was made in Prospect cemetery. Dunkelberger and Westbrook funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Three Divorce Decrees Are Handed Down

Three final decrees of divorce were handed down by Monroe county court yesterday during the primary election day session.

Decrees were granted Valara Halstead, Tobyhanna, from Richard Halstead, Pocono Pines; Paulita M. Zuchelli, Scotrun, from Frank W. Zuchelli, 198 Broad St., Stroudsburg; and E. Beatrice Stucky, Stroud township, from Stanley Stucky, also of Stroud township.

In another phase of the criminal court work completed yesterday, the court received a petition recommending the removal of a county jail prisoner to a State mental institution.

Dr. Roman J. Batory, Stroudsburg physician; Dr. Floyd Hess, of Bangor, and Dr. John B. Oliver, of Pen Argyl, all testified in connection with the petition. Atty. Sullivan Cistone, of Bangor, represented the petitioners.

Fish do not drink water; they get enough moisture in their food.

When lesser cars look for mechanics-- your Packard is just broken in!

As the mileage indicator climbs to the higher brackets, most car owners do one of two things. Either trade in their cars, or spend plenty on overhaul.

But not you!

When that chunk of mileage has rolled under your wheels, chances are your Packard is still rolling along as sweetly, as steadily as the day you took title. That's a pretty light-hearted feeling to have these days.

For an important example of what we mean, take an inside look at a Packard Thunderbolt engine. You probably already know it's the highest compression eight in America. But what you may not know is that there are up to 25% fewer working parts than in engines of comparable power!

Simplicity of design, plus traditional Packard precision engineering and workmanship, have won for Packard the greatest durability record in the automotive industry. (Fact: of all the Packards built in the last 52 years, over 50% are still in service!) And durability—high mileage, trouble-free durability —should be one of your most important considerations when buying a car today.

Let your Packard dealer show you how this brand of long-haul-engineering is carried out from stem to stern, road to roof, in every motor car that carries the name, Packard.

Then decide for yourself which car in all of motor-dom is the best investment for the years ahead.

We'll wager it will be the car you wanted all along! The all-new 1951 Packard! The most beautiful, best performing car of the year!

It's more than a car--it's a PACKARD

New John Bean Visualiner Checks Wheel Alignment By Harnessing Beams Of Light

Haynes Motors, your friendly Ford dealer in the Stroudsburgs, has good news for everyone who owns a car or a truck.

There's been a lot of mystery about this wheel aligning business, a lot of technical talk about such things as "camber," "caster," "toe-in" and other terms to explain why your automobile steers hard or wears out tires as fast as you can buy new ones. Jess Haynes, owner, said,

"we don't believe in ghosts or mystery stories and that's why we've installed a new John Bean Visualiner in our steering service department."

The visualiner is the first machine we've ever seen that makes driving easier and safer by harnessing beams of light. Checks wheel alignment quick-as-a-flash and projects a "picture" on a screen so that you can see for yourself whether your car needs attention. It's no secret that faulty wheel alignment can cause "wandering," "road weave" and other hard steering symptoms. So, drive in today and let the visualiner show you whether your automobile is right for the road.

While you are there Mr. Haynes invites your inspection of their new up-to-date parts depot. The largest supply of Ford automobile and truck parts you will find anywhere. Remember Haynes Motors is the complete one service stop, no job is too big, and no job is too small. Everyone receives prompt, courteous and expert attention when stopping at Haynes Motors, N. 9th and Scott Sts., Stroudsburg, P. S.—Just a friendly reminder that July 31 is the last day to have your motor vehicle State inspected, the new inspection period begins August 1. Pick up the phone now and call 198 and make a date with Haynes Motors.

126 Pints Of Blood Donated Here By Industrial Workers, Other Citizens, Camp Guests

Men and women of industry joined camp guests and citizens of the county yesterday to deliver 126 pints of whole blood to the American Red Cross blood donor program which made an emergency call on this region late last week.

LeRoy Mikels, chairman of the program here, said last night 136 blood donors registered to give blood at the CLU hall, East Stroudsburg, where the mobile unit and its staff operated from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

After physical examinations, 126 were accepted and gave blood.

The original announcement gave this county a quota of 125 pints, but a later wire received Monday raised the quota to 150 pints. Had the first quota prevailed this county would have maintained its record of never having missed filling a quota.

The urgency involved in the current call for blood involves a number of factors. Most important of these is the fact that three major blood centers of the country have been immobilized by floods.

These centers were heavy suppliers to the Armed forces, especially the Korean war front where American Red Cross officials emphasized, the need for blood remains critical despite the cease-fire talks between U. N. forces and the Communists.

A major portion of the blood taken here yesterday is already winging its way to Korea. Remainder will be for civilian use, some of it for persons who were burned by flaming oil on flood waters in the Missouri and Kansas River Valley sections.

Mr. Mikels expressed satisfaction over the splendid response to the appeal for blood. He noted that the appeal reached even those who are here for the summer, mostly campers, and paid tribute to industrial workers and citizens who responded to keep this county high record with the regional blood center at Wilkes-Barre intact.

Plans are already being pushed for a special blood donor day to be held during August at Camp Tamiment, where an outstanding record was achieved last year.

Television Tax Plagues Owners

Ridgewood, N. J., (AP)—Television owners in this north Jersey community came up with a new gripe yesterday—T.V.T.

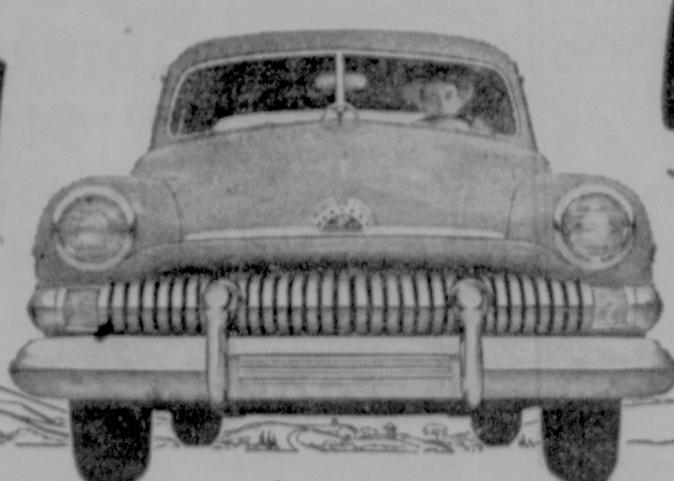

To non-residents, T.V.T. stands for television tax, something the village fathers thought up and applied at the rate of $11.60 per year for every set owner.

If you are one of the 4,000 television set owners, the village slaps a $200 assessment on your personal property tax. You fork out $11.60 a year per set. Ridgewood thereby gathers in an extra $46,000 in revenue annually.

Asked how set owners were determined, Tax Assessor Clarence N. Delgado said the village counted rooftop antennas.

The village commission met last night to hear beefs such as "what about tax dodgers who use indoor aerials?"

The High Cost of Walking

Most of us remember when we could buy a pair of shoes for little more than it now costs to have them repaired.

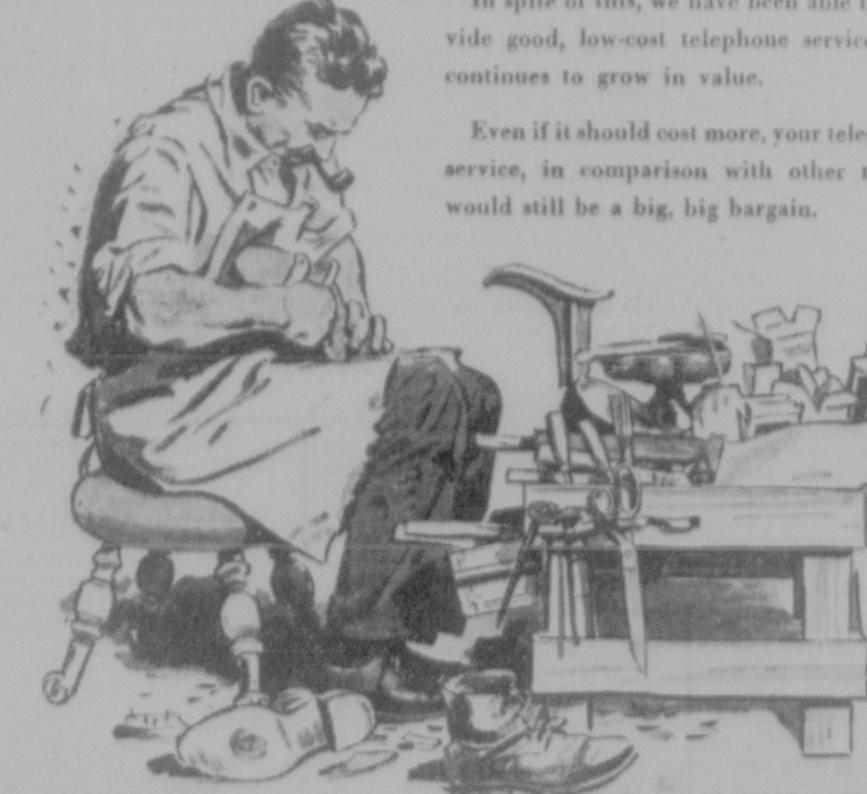

But don't blame the man who makes the repairs. He has to pay more for everything he uses. Blame the dollar! It just won't buy what it used to.

We are feeling the pinch, too.

The cost of supplies and equipment used in the telephone business is going up and up, just like the cost of supplies and equipment for other businesses.

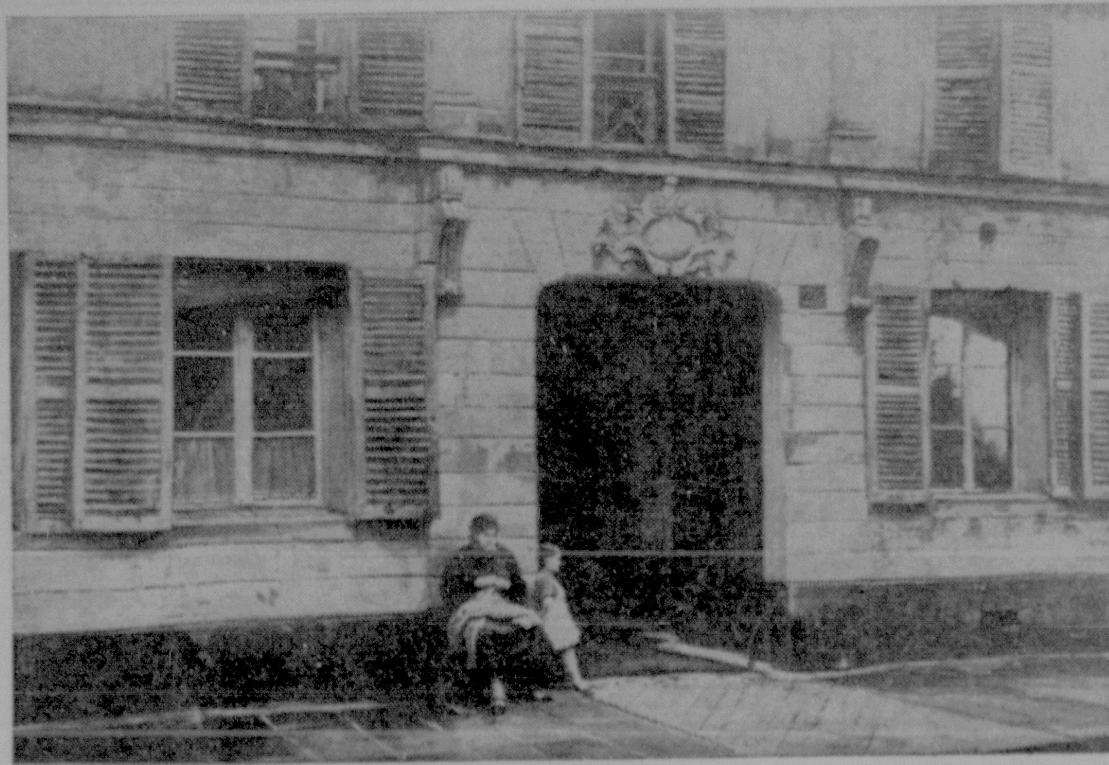

In spite of this, we have been able to provide good, low-cost telephone service that continues to grow in value.

Even if it should cost more, your telephone service, in comparison with other things, would still be a big, big bargain.

"THE CONCIERGE" by Ogden Pleissner, one of the paintings now on display at the nineteenth annual purchase exhibition at Buck Hill Inn.

Contemporary Paintings By 73 Leading Artists Now On Exhibit At Buck Hill Inn

Paintings by 73 of the leading artists of the country have been gathered together for the nineteenth annual purchase prize exhibition sponsored by the Buck Hill Art association now open in the East Room and south and middle lounges at the Inn at Buck Hill Falls.

Drawn from seven New York galleries and the studios of the artists, the exhibit offers to the people of Monroe county a unique chance to see the work of contemporary artists. The exhibition will continue until August 20, and the votes of the members of the Art association will determine which painting will be purchased this year for the Inn's permanent collection.

Previous purchase prize winners who are again represented include Joe Jones, Eugene Speicher, John Koch, Henry Schankenberg, Julian Binford, Walter Emerson Baum, Ogden Pleissner, Gordon Grant, Andrew Winter and Anthony Thieme.

Local artists and local scenes are also represented in the paintings, including Edna Palmer Engelhardt, a native of the Poconos, who is exhibiting "Woodland Melody"; J. Howard MacPherson, of Bushkill, with "Across the Delaware"; Frank Schoonover, with "Beaver Lake—Bushkill, Pa." and C. I. Dreisbach with "White Christmas."

Other artists whose works have won prizes and awards in major competitions include Jerry Farnsworth, with "Thursday's Child"; and his wife, Helen Sawyer; Alexander Brook, Charles Burchfield, Jon Corbin, Dean Fausett, Raphael Gleizmann, George Gross, John Heliker, and many others.

The subjects of the pictures have as wide a range as the artists themselves with landscapes and city scenes, portraits and still lifes, abstractions, and allegories included in the largest showing ever held at the Inn.

The exhibition is part of a vigorous art program centering at the Inn this summer. Yesterday Miss Beatrice Farwell, lecture-hostess of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, gave an illustrated lecture on "Some Modern American Water-Colorists," and earlier in the week spoke on "The Artist and Society."

In addition to seeing and hearing of paintings, there is also an opportunity to practice it themselves for the members of the two art classes being conducted there this summer. Under the leadership of guest artists, members of the classes are painting scenes around the Inn.

Walter Emerson Baum, whose painting "Quakertown Road" won the 1945 purchase prize, and who is exhibiting in the current exhibit, is at present instructing the classes, who were hard at work yesterday in the barn at Charnmarie, which they have converted into a studio.

Mr. Baum is art critic for the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

1950 Church Membership At New High

New York, CP—American church membership in 1950 rose to 85,705,280—an unparalleled 5.9 per cent of the population, an annual survey showed yesterday.

The new figure represents a membership gain of 2,950,987.

The report, compiled by the Christian Herald magazine which makes the only comprehensive, regular survey of church membership in the United States, disclosed these counts for the major faiths:

Protestant membership increased 1,409,045 to 50,083,686, or 2.89 per cent over the previous year.

Roman Catholics gained 859,784 to bring their total to 28,470,092, up 3.1 per cent.

Jewish congregations, minus any new statistics, stayed at 5,000,000.

"The major faiths," the report said, "continue in about the same proportion to each other."

Protestants are still well in the lead, with 58.5 per cent of all church members. Roman Catholics claim 33.2 per cent of the total, while Jewish congregations account for 5.8 per cent."

Other groups make up the remaining 2.5 per cent.

Altogether, memberships of the various faiths climbed 3.56 per cent last year, while population grew only 1.67 per cent—thus putting church membership at an all-time record of 55.9 per cent of the nation.

At present, 44.1 per cent do not belong to any church. Fifty years ago, 65.3 per cent were in this

Life of RileyBy JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

Residents of East Stroudsburg and Stroudsburg will enjoy another first in their sports parade tonight, when the Little Leagues of the two boroughs come to blows in the District Eight playoff grind, which will send one or the other of the circuits to greater heights in the Little League state playoff struggle. The local series will be judged on the best two-out-of-three games basis.

All season the Stroudsburgs have been experiencing one first after another on the sporting scene. This is the first season for official Little League baseball in either borough, the first season that Monroe County has been represented in the Blue Mountain League, the first year for the Inter-Borough League, a loop for youngsters from 12 to 15 inclusive. It is also the first season since 1946 that Monroe County hasn't been represented in the North Atlantic League, as the circuit folded, at least temporarily, last winter.

Although it is the first year for official Little League baseball in Monroe County, the game has caught on like wildfire and each of the playoffs between the rival boroughs should draw very large crowds. There are two changes in the setup to be used during the playoffs than were practiced during the regular campaign. Each game will start at 6 p.m., one-half hour earlier than usual and the visiting team will have its choice of when to bat, either first or second. East Stroudsburg won the toss so the first game will be held at the East Stroudsburg Playground, while the second contest is listed for Stroudsburg.

According to an early announcement games will be played tonight, tomorrow night and the third will be held on Saturday, if needed. The crowd attending tonight's Little League encounter is also in for a treat, as the East Stroudsburg circuit has arranged for bleachers to be erected, through the cooperation of East Stroudsburg High school and the borough. The high school is giving the bleachers to the circuit for the series, while the borough is having them erected. A snow fence has also been added to limit the outfield space for the contest.

Both Tallys
The Blue Mountain league all-stars started their only two runs in the sixth, when Fred Sisolak, West Bangor third sacker, walked to reach base for the third time in the game. The West Bangor dash promptly stole second and raced home on a single by Mike Renaldo, Roseto first sacker. Renaldo went to second on the throw to the plate, from where he scored on another one-base blow by Leroy Tucker, sure footed East Bangor center fielder.

Jim Dietz, veteran East Bangor hurler, opened on the hill for the Blue Mountain league club and pitched three perfect innings, not allowing a hit or giving up a run during his tour of duty. Schoonover was next in line, followed by Ray Smith, Tatamy, and John Johnson.

Sisolak's fifth inning circuit blow was the only extra base hit of the contest.

Sisolak and Tucker led the Blue Mountain league attack with two hits each, while Dent and Smith came up with a similar number of safe blows for the Philadelphia Stars.

The Blue Mountain league contingent held the Philadelphia Stars on even terms as far as the number of hits were concerned, each accounting for seven.

Paul Schaller Files Petition For Parole

A petition for parole of Paul H. Schaller, mechanic of 114 N. Ninth St., Stroudsburg who on May 15 pleaded guilty to a charge of failing to stop at the scene of an accident, was taken under advisement in Monroe county court yesterday.

The defendant, operator of a car which struck a family group walking along Route 611 on Foxtown Hill in the early morning of April 26, was sentenced to six months in county jail and ordered to pay a nominal fine of $1.

When several criminal cases were studied by the court during the long election day session yesterday, Atty. James C. Scanlon, representing Schaller, presented the petition for parole. District Attorney Detleff A. Hansen appeared for the Commonwealth.

James Ludwig, small five-year-old who was one of the several persons walking at the side of the highway at the time of the accident, was seriously injured when struck by the Schaller machine.

Million Copies Of New Bible To Be Printed

New York (P)—The first printing of the revised standard version of the Bible will total nearly 1,000,000 copies—said to be the biggest undertaking in book publishing history.

This word came yesterday from William R. McCulley, president of Thomas Nelson and Sons, publishers of the revised Bible which is scheduled to be ready for distribution in September, 1952.

The revised standard version is the result of 14 years of work by 31 scholars. They represented more than 40 major denominations under the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the USA.

McCulley said the initial printing order is the greatest ever placed for a full-sized book by a commercial publishing house. He put its retail value at more than $5,000,000, but did not give the cost per single copy.

Court Orders Payment In Non-Support Case, Makes Changes In Two Actions

Henry W. Miller, of Stroudsburg PD 3, was directed to pay $5 per week to Miss Elizabeth G. Martin, Monroe county probation officer, when he was brought in county court on a non-support charge yesterday.

When the case was brought before Judge Fred W. Davis and Associate Judge Theodore S. Metzgar, District Attorney Detleff A. Hansen pointed out that the parties appeared willing to reach an agreement regarding the support order.

Miller was charged specifically with failing to support a small daughter. The prosecutrix was Norie Miller.

Discussion of the case followed, after which the court pronounced sentence. Miller was also directed to pay the costs of yesterday's proceedings and to enter into his own recognition to the amount of $300 to assure faithful compliance with the fund recently included:

Men's Class, Stroudsburg Presbyterian Church, $16; Mrs. Eugene Emmerich, $8; Mrs. Wilma Schroeder, $1 and Anonymous, $1.

Contributions may be made to Major Adam or sent to Salvation Army headquarters on South Courtland St., East Stroudsburg.

County Court Experiences Long Session

Monroe county court opened with the polls at 8 a. m. yesterday with President Judge Fred W. Davis and Associate Judge Theodore S. Metzgar on the bench.

The court remained in session to handle any arising election matters until two hours after the polls closed at 9 p. m., although several criminal cases were reviewed during the long session.

Necessity of having the court available during all voting hours eliminated even the customary noon and dinner hour adjournments yesterday. Court crier Henry Hester, prothonotary and clerk of courts Claude E. Metzgar, and the judges alternated in leaving for lunch in order to keep the court open at all times during the 13-hour period.

Another non-support action, the Commonwealth vs. Chester Miller, of 917 Elmer St., Arlington Heights, was reviewed yesterday, during which time the court reduced the defendant's payments to $12 per week.

A third support case, that against Ernest Ludwig, of S. Eighth St., was also reviewed by the court yesterday. He was ordered to increase support payments for his wife and three children from $25 to $30 per week.

Contributions may be made to Major Adam or sent to Salvation Army headquarters on South Courtland St., East Stroudsburg.

Compared to Premium-priced Gasolines

HIGH-TEST BLUE SUNOCO

Most Miles Per Gallon

Official surveys show that Blue Sunoco has a "higher specific gravity" (weighs more) than practically all premium-priced gasolines. As automotive engineers know, this extra weight means extra energy...more mileage. Road tests showed that, due to this extra weight and energy, the mileage from Blue Sunoco was unsurpassed by any premium-priced gasolines.

2¢ Saving Per Gallon

High-test Blue Sunoco sells at regular gas price, which is usually 2 cents a gallon below premium-priced gasolines. In spite of its low price, in many ways Blue Sunoco gives you more value because of its outstanding balance of such qualities as anti-rust, quick-starting, anti-stalling, clean burning, long mileage and high-test action.

Camp Fund $54 Short Of Goal

Salvation Army's camp fund for sending a final contingent on youngsters—the Sunbeams—to Camp Al-Yuk, Pa. stands at $26, just $54 short of the amount required to pay expenses for the children for a ten-day period.

Major May Adam said, the Sunbeams will go to the State clinic this morning for physical examinations to check their fitness before leaving for the camp and a period of guided recreation and training.

Contributions may be made to Major Adam or sent to Salvation Army headquarters on South Courtland St., East Stroudsburg.
